SUBJECT: MAYOR'S INVITATION TO WHITE CANE DAY

The above matter refers.

The Municipality has received a request from the Deputy Prime Minister's Office to support the visually impaired in the commemoration of International White Cane Day tomorrow, Friday 20th October 2023.

The DPM's Office will be hosting the event working together with the National Association for the Visually Impaired in Eswatini. The event will start at 10am with a march from the civic centre up to the Post Office and back to the Millennium Park. The theme for this year is "A Guide To Freedom, Independence And Inclusion - A Plea For All Encompassing Access Of Equal Opportunities For All". The event shall will, amongst others, be attended by the EU Ambassador, Manzini Regional Administrator, Principal Secretary in the Deputy Prime Minister's Office and the Commissioner General of Eswatini Revenue Service.

The Municipality has agreed to support the event by way of providing a tent, chairs and tables. The Mayor has been requested to deliver welcome remarks during the event. The Office of the CEO is hereby requested to request Her Worship the Mayor to render the welcome remarks. The programme and Mayor's remarks will be forwarded to your office as soon as possible.
